The First Place We Stayed!

We Didn't Want It to End!

Aniston (with Pitt at the Altamer resort on January 3) is "stunningly beautiful," says a source on the island. "She looks better in person than she has in any movie or on Friends."

Their Itinerary

- December 27 Pitt checks the group into location No. 1, Exclusivity Villa.
- December 30 Due to choppy waves outside their villa, the crew tries to reserve a beach day at resort Cap Juluca – but can't because fellow VIP P. Diddy already has the slot booked!
- December 31 (Day) Success! The group land their seaside spot at Cap Juluca, where the Arquettes hang with daughter Coco and sip afternoon tea. (He reads, she talks on her cellphone.)
- December 31 (Eve) Happy New Year! At 9 P.M., the foursome hit Cap Juluca's casual restaurant, George's, for a $150-a-pop buffet. "They were eating like champs!" says an onlooker, who noted both gals went back for thirds of dishes like ribs, fish and mashed potatoes. Before midnight, the group left (with red wine!) to party in private.
- January 3 The gang checked out of Exclusivity Villa – and into Altamer resort for more fun in the sun!

Beyoncé & Jay-Z's Sexy Island Getaway

Love, Anguilla style!
On December 29,
Beyoncé and Jay-Z slipped away from their vacation digs
to go for a romantic ocean walk.

Finally getting a break from their hectic schedules, pop princess Beyoncé, 23, and rapper turned mogul Jay-Z, 34, ran away to the Caribbean for some R&R on the island of Anguilla. On December 29, the couple tore themselves away from their hideaway in the luxe Altamer resort — where a weeklong package can cost $500,000! — to take a stroll in the afternoon sun. The pair, who attended Denzel Washington's 50th-birthday party at Trattoria Tramonto the night before, “looked very content,” says an eyewitness. “Just very happy.” After stopping for a drink at Blade star Wesley Snipes's rented villa, the couple headed back to their love nest, but not before Beyoncé cooled off with a quick dip in the surf. “Jay just stood there,” adds the onlooker, “admiring his girl in the water.
